Unit 4 - Using the mouse and keyboard to use application software

- The computer can perform various tasks..

  Different software is used for different tasks performed by the computer. They are called application software.

  .
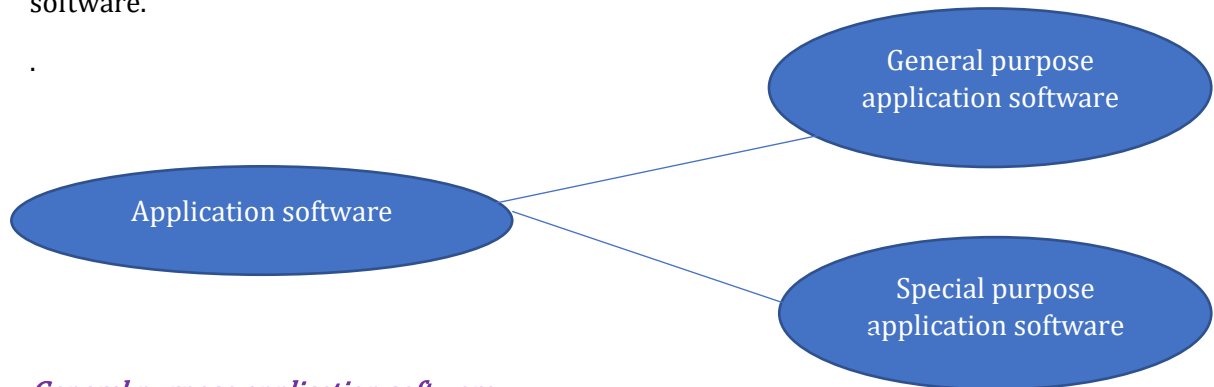

> ### General purpose application software

Software used to fulfill everyday needs.

> ### Special purpose application software

Software designed to perform specific functions based on user needs.

(01) Write down the software used to perform the below tasks.

- Preparation of documents -   …………………………………
- Watching videos -   …………………………………
- Engage in computer games -   …………………………………
- Listening to songs -   …………………………………
- Use of email -   …………………………………

(02) Attach the following software examples to the appropriate software category

ArtRage

Word processing software   Graphics software

Adobe Illustrator