5) Read the following passage and fill in the blanks in the text given below. Use only one word in each blank.

Henry Ford was the first person to build cars which were cheap, strong and fast. He was able to sell millions of the models because he 'mass-produced' them; that is, he made great many cars of exactly the same type. Ford's father hoped that his son would become a farmer like him, but the young man did not like the idea and he went to Detroit where he worked as a mechanic. By the age of 29, in 1892, he had built his first car. However, the first 'mass-produced' car in the world, the famous 'Model T', appeared in 1908-five years after Ford had started his great Motor
