

- II. After filling the above parts into the correct format, read the email again and state whether these statements are true(T) or false(F).
  - a. Uma is studying in a university.
  - b. Pathum has faced the interview successfully.
  - c. Uma's father didn't want her to do a job at first.
  - d. Uma is going to call Pathum on Monday.
- III. Discuss the answers to the following questions with your friends.
  - a. What salutation or greeting does the letter start with?
  - b. What are the other ways to write the salutation?
  - c. What are the emoticons used in this email? What do they mean?
  - d. What is the initialism used here? What does it mean?
  - e. Is this a formal email or an informal email? Give reasons for your answer.
- IV. Now write a short email to one of your friends telling about a trip you went. Include the following.
  - Where and when you went.
  - > The places you visited.
  - > The things you did.
  - How you feel about the trip.

5. External resources:

- e nenapiyasa
- Textbook
- Webpages- https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/writing/upper- intermediate-b2-writing/informal-email
- Youtube-

https://youtu.be/IIqPvcciKEM https://youtu.be/ rv7QvdvMAY

Books/magazines

6. Outcomes of the lesson:

- > Arranges the parts of an email into the correct order.
- States the accuracy of a given set of statements.
- Discusses answers with peers.
- Writes an email to a friend.