Let's focus our attention to "Type 1 Conditional Sentences".

In "Type 1 Conditional Sentences", the second action depends on the first action.

eg: If you study hard, you will pass the exam.

if clause

main clause

- ✚ Remember that you are using Simple Present Tense verbs with "If clause", and Simple Future Tense with "main clause".
- ✚ Usage: To talk about possibilities in the Present or Future.

Complete the following sentences with suitable verbs.

1. If we dump chemicals into water ways, we(not be able to) swim in the future.
 2. If we(not stop) cutting down trees, we(endanger) our oxygen supply.
 3. If the sun radiations can't escape into space, Earth's temperature..... (increase) steadily.
 4. If the global temperature(rise), sea levels (rise) too.
 5. People(run out of) drinking water one day, if they (not use) it more rationally.
1. Read the above sentences after completing them and write five similar sentences describing what will happen to living beings in the future if the environmental pollution continues in the same way.
 2. Now complete the activity (questions 1 and 2) given in page 45 in your text book.
