Grammar pg. 106

- (11) In what type of sentences we do not change the verb? State whether True or False
  - (a) If the reporting verb is in past tense (.....)
  - (b) If the reporting verb is in present tense (......)
  - (c) If the original statement s about something that is still true (......)
- (12) What are the modal verbs that do not change in reported speech?
- (14) Complete the activity 2 on page number 109
- (15) Important rules for direct speech :

Direct speech is always written between inverted commas.

A comma is used to separate the direct speech from the rest of the sentence.

The first word immediately after the quotes always begins with a capital letter.

The direct speech generally ends with a full stop, question mark or an exclamation mark which should be written before the closing inverted commas.

Now complete the activity 3 on page 110.

(16) Do activity 4 and share the passage with your friends and relate it on your school WhatsApp group.
