

Learning Outcomes:-

- Students will be able to identify the simple poetic techniques mentioned.
- Students will be able to express their ideas, feelings, emotions in simple sentences.

Student’s task:-

- Read the poems given in this worksheet and answer the questions with the previous knowledge (unit –9)
- Do the activity 15 of unit 10 in your text book.

Poems on “Future”

There’s an Alien in My Bedroom!

There's an alien in my bedroom
He says he comes from space
He's got three wobbly eyes
And a great big purple face

He came here in a spaceship
And it's parked in my backyard
He says he's got no petrol
So going home will be hard

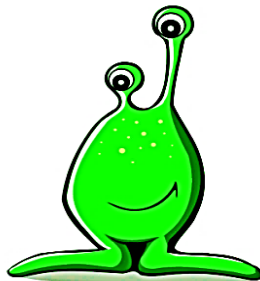

He says it runs on rubbish
Like crisp bags and banana-skin
And he really really wants to know
If I can help him

You see he misses his family
His mum and his three dads
And the thought of never seeing them
Is making him feel sad

So I'm saving up my rubbish
For the alien in my room
So I can wave goodbye to him
And watch his spaceship ZOOM!

By Louise Nilon

By Louis Nilon

1. What is the topic of the poem?

.....

2. Who is the poet?

.....

3. Where is the alien?

.....

4. What words are used to describe following words

- eyes -
- face -

5. Write rhyming words for the following

- space -
- room -

Astronaut Song

Outer space is where I really like to go.

I ride inside a spaceship,
don't you know.

I like to travel through the stars, wave to Jupiter and Mars.

Outer space is where I really like to go.

1. What is the title of the poem?

2. Where does the poet like to go?

3. He likes to ride inside

- Jupiter
- star
- a spaceship

4. To which planets the poet like to wave?

- Earth and Jupiter
- Jupiter and Mars
- Jupiter and Earth

5. Write rhyming words

- go -

A Fish in a Spaceship

A Funny School Poem for Kids
(from the book "My Hippo Has the Hiccups")

A fish in a spaceship is flying through school.
 A dinosaur's dancing on top of a stool.
 The library's loaded with orange baboons,
 in purple tuxedos with bows and balloons.

The pigs on the playground are having a race
 while pencils parade in their linens and lace.
 As camels do cartwheels and elephants fly,
 bananas are baking a broccoli pie.

A hundred gorillas are painting the walls,
 while robots on rockets careen through the halls.
 Tomatoes are teaching in all of the classes.
 Or maybe, just maybe, I need some new glasses.

By Kenn Nesbitt

1. What is the title of the poem?
.....
2. Who is the poet?
.....
3. What are the pigs doing on the playground?
.....
4. How many gorillas are painting the walls?
.....
5. Write rhyming words for the following
 - school -
 - race -
 - fly -
 - walls -
 - classes -

PREPARED BY – MISS.B.S.Y.T.COORAY
R/BALA/KOONGAHAMANKADA V.