01) Study the given summary which is related to the chapter 12 and find the answers for the questions.

Miles Hendon and Edward make use of the announcement to escape from the mob. Edward realizes he's the king. As Hendon and Edward reach Hendon's lodgings, Canty shows up to reclaim the boy. Hendon defends the boy against Canty and takes him into his lodgings and proceeds to tell his own tale of misfortune. Miles still thinks Edward is crazy and vows to help him regain his health. Edward offers Miles his choice of rewards for saving him from the crowd.

- I. Why does Miles Hendon take such good care of Edward even though he doesn't think Edward is the king?
- II. Why does Hendon think that Edward's behaviour is admirable?
- III. Why does Edward expect to be waited on? How does Miles react to Edward's expectations?
- IV. Why does Miles ask to sit in the presence of the king? Why is that a huge privilege?
- V. Write a short paragraph about Miles Hendon's story.

02) Read the extracts and answer questions.

- i) "By the mass, the little beggar takes to one's quarters and usurps one's bed with as natural and easy a grace as if he owned them-with never a by-your-leave or so-please – it-you, or anything of the sort."

- a) Who is the speaker? Who is referred to as 'he'?
- b) Where are they? What is this situation?
- c) Give your views on the speaker's attitudes towards 'he'?

ii) "And so I am become a knight of the kingdom of Dreams and Shadows!"

- a) Who is the speaker? Who made the speaker a knight?
- b) Where are they? What is this situation?
- c) What is the tone of the speaker? Give your views.
