

Subject:- English

Grade :- 11

Prepared by - Zonal Education Office, Kegalle

REVISION

Test 09

- Choose the most suitable preposition.

1. Prof. Charles Kao is one of the most prominent scientists in the world. All his students have great respect (in, on, to, for) _____ him.
2. The belief (of, in, at, for) _____ aliens and UFOs is absurd!
3. He apologized (at, for, to, on) _____ her (at, for, to, on) _____ being late by treating her dinner.
4. My parents are worried (at, of, for, about) _____ the family's financial problems.
5. Do not ask me to fix your laptop. I am not familiar (to, of, with, about) _____ computers.

(10 marks)

Test 10

Fill in the blanks with the given words. Write the correct letter in the blank.

a. now    b. saw    c. air    d. rid    e. used    f. broken    f. as h. out    i. on    j. up    k. on    l. out    m. it    n. in

It was midnight when the last guest left. I sighed heavily as I looked around. The living room was full of stale perfume. As I looked around, I 1. .... wet patches of spilt drink on my best Persian carpet. My antique vases were totally smashed. They had even 2. .... my antique oak tables to sit on. These guests of mine had done their best to destroy my expensively decorated living room. What a night this had turned 3. .... to be.

I shook my head. The mess would take hours to clear. Getting 4. ....of the smell would require days. My housekeeper would have resigned 5. .... the spot if she saw the mess. I had to do something fast. I could not afford to lose her 6. ....she is the best cook I have ever had.

I had no choice. I went to the bookshelf, took 7. ....the book "The Evolution of Man" by Charles Darwin and pressed on the wall behind 8. .... . A small hole in the wall appeared 9. .... my right. I reached 10. .... and took out a long object. Then I waved it in the 11. .... . The room started to clean itself 12. .... . Even the antique vases started fitting themselves together so well that one could not tell they had been 13. .... . As you might have guessed by 14. ...., the long object is a wand, and I am what they call a witch.

(7 marks)