

Provincial Department of Education, Sabaragamuwa - Week School

Week: 30th May-5th June, 2021

Subject: Geography

Grade-10

Translated by: Ms, S.F. Nimmaz Kg/ Sirisaman National School.

4. Agriculture in Sri Lanka.

Livestock Farming

(Text Book page number 68-75)

- A great importance has been given to the live the livestock farming as it's a process that is bounded with agriculture.
- Through the dairy farming, the nutrition level of the local people can be arisen and even it helps to save the foreign exchange.
- Fisheries industry plays a prominent role in the economy of Sri Lanka with the favourable factors such as the location of Sri Lanka as an island.
- The fisheries industry of Sri Lank can be categorized into three parts, such as Marine water fisheries, Fresh water fisheries and Brackish water fisheries.
- While the fishery industry provides required amount of protein for the people, also it provides employment opportunities. So that the fisheries industry can be considered as an important sector of the economy of Sri Lanka.

Activity

Fill in the blanks.

- 01) 1. ....Dairy Cattle center has been established to exchange the lactating cows.
2. About 2/3 of the buffaloes are reared in the areas of .....Zone in Sri Lanka.
3. The largest quantity of fish is obtained from the ..... Sea.
4. ....are the most suitable places for brackish water fishing as there is both sea water and fresh water in those areas.
- 02) Write 5 reasons for paying special attention on livestock farming. Now explain two of them.
- 03) Shade and name the areas in which cattle rearing is done in a Sri Lankan map.
- 04) Prepare a list of milk products which can be seen in the markets of Sri Lanka.
- 05) Write various kind of fishing gears which are used to harvest in the deep sea.