

* The landscape of an area can be identified in two ways namely physical landscape and human landscape, on the otherhand overall landscape of an area is created by the relationship of these two landscapes.

1. The distribution of population is shown in this map. Obeserve the map carefully and write the salient features of the distribution pattern of population in Sri Lanka.
2. What are the main ways used to explain the compositions of population in Sri Lanka.
3. What are the main features of a settlement.
4. What are the main settlement types seen in Sri Lanka.
5. Write four steps that have been taken to develop the infrastructure facilities in Sri Lanka.

6. Answer the questions asked in relation to the following map.

(I) Name the free trade zones denoted by the letters A , B and C.

(II) What is the Urban settlement denoted by the letter D.

(III) Name the two rivers that are contributing to the hydro power generation shown by letters E and F.

(IV) What is the district that has the lowest population in Sri Lanka denoted by letter G.