

GENERAL ENGLISH – GRADE 13

PROTOTYPE QUESTIONS BASED ON THE PAPER

01.06.2020- 04.06.2020

1) Underline the option that best expresses the meaning of the sentences given below.

1. He arrived at the place of the accident in no time.

A. He was late to come.

B. He didn't have time to come.

C. He had little time to come.

D. He came within a short time

2. Unless and until he comes out with the truth, bail out is out of question.

A. He is bailed out soon.

B. He is not bailed out soon.

C. Bail out is not a question at all.

D. Bail out depends on what he speaks.

3. Even if they perform well nor do they dismally fail does not count.

A. It is important for them to perform well.

B. If they fail, they will be penalized.

C. If they fail, it does not make any impact.

D. They don't perform well for sure.

4. Though she bashfully got on to the stage, her performance mesmerized the audience.

A. She was not awkward at the beginning.

B. She faulted in her performance.

C. Her performance was well received by the audience.

D. Her bashfulness was visible in her performance.

5. He realized his hard work was paid off on hearing the loud applause.

A. He was not paid for his hard work.

B. His hard work was in vain at the end.

C. He was successful at the end.

D. He realized about his hard work.

2) Underline the correct word-ending, selecting from those given within brackets.

She thought of many things. She was absolut.....(ily/ely/ety) disenchanted with her life. she thought of her mother, her father, Nambu Henaya, her son Baba Henaya, Heen Ridee, Anagihamy...in her subcons.....(ceous/sious/cious) she entertained the hope that one day she would go look for Anagihamy. Then she thought of Nambu Henaya. He had at this mom.....(ant/ent/ont) gone towards the stream to pick miyana leaves. Such tasks were all that he could do. He couldn't even climb a tree to pluck a coconut or a Jack fruit. Lately she had begun calling him kabala whenever she got angry with him. Stung by the all.....(usion/igason/llion) to being out of order or obso.....(yate/fate/late) he would them retreat to the paddy fields. He would remain at the rock of the paththare or in tree hut at Puwakgasdeniya and slowly make his way back home when darkness fell.

On such occa.....(tion/sion/eion) he would remember his mother. She was the one friend he had in this world. She had died after being go.....(red/ted/ved) by a bull. His sister Garu Ridee assumed control of the house after their mother's death contrary to the conven.....(sion/tion/gion) that it should have passed on to the youngest son. Regardless of everything, he had the deepest respect for Podina even though he cringed before Podina. If she was not to be seen, he would go look for her. When he found where she was, he felt contended.

Prepared by : Mr. Nanda Gunasekara , R/ Kahangama Buddhist School, Ratnapura