

පළාත් අධ්‍යාපන දෙපාර්තමේන්තුව සබරගමුව

Subject : General English

Week: 4

Grade: 13

Prepared by: English Unit - Ratnapura Education Zone

The Grammar session given in unit 6 is based on “Clauses”. Study it carefully and refresh your memory on “clauses”. (pages 132-135)

1. What is the most suitable definition for a clause?
  - a) A clause is a group of words, with or without a main verb.
  - b) A clause is a complete sentence not a part of a sentence.
  - c) A clause is a group of words containing a main verb and it can be either a complete sentence or a part of it.
2. Can you describe what “a dependent clause” is and “an independent clause” is?
3. Now underline the dependent clauses of the sentences given in page 133.
4. Focus your attention on the Grammar section “Simple, Complex and Compound sentences”
  - a) What is a simple sentence?
  - b) What is a complex sentence?
  - c) Identify the simple sentences and complex sentences from the given five sentences in page 134.
  - d) Here, you find the word “subordinating conjunction”. What is a “subordinating conjunction”? In which sentences can you find these “subordinating conjunctions”?
  - e) Provide some examples for “subordinating conjunctions”.
  - f) Now complete the activities no. 1 & 2 given in pages 136 & 137.
5. What is a compound sentence? (Page 135)
6. What is a “coordinating conjunction”? Provide some examples for coordinating conjunctions.
7. Now complete question no. 3 & 4 in page 137.

