

Department of Education, Sabaragamuwa/weekly school

week- November 4

Subject-Business Studies

Grade-12

Prepared by - Zonal Education Office, Rathnapura.

1. Write four adverse effects that may occur when government does not intervene the business activities.
2. Government provides required facilities to businesses to build a close relationship between government and businesses. And, businesses should provide their contribution in achieving government economic policies. State four ways that businesses can contribute to achieve government's economic policies.
3. Explain the positive impacts on businesses, when Central Bank of Sri Lanka reduces interest rate.
4. State four reasons for the importance of consumer protection more at present than the past times.
5. Ratha is a specialized person in designing modern dresses. Geetha has the ability of cutting and sewing any design of modern dresses. They both start a partnership business regarding designing and sewing dresses.
 - (a) Do you think it is relevant for Ratha and Geetha to start a partnership business? Give reasons for your answer.
 - (b) Write two disadvantages of partnership business mentioned above.
 - (c) Ratha and Geetha consider to create a partnership agreement to conduct the business in a better way. State what kind of information should be commonly included in a partnership agreement.